DESCRIPTION

DETAILS

The FBI is requesting the public's assistance in identifying and locating an individual responsible for allegedly robbing a Brinks' armored truck and assaulting one of its guards.

On July 3, 2015, a Brinks' armored truck with two guards arrived at the Wells Fargo located at 4489 South Laburnum Avenue in Henrico County, Virginia, to deposit money into the ATM. While attempting to unlock the ATM, one of the guards was allegedly assaulted with a taser by an unknown black male. While the guard was incapacitated, the robber reportedly grabbed the Brinks' bag and fled the scene on foot across Audubon Drive. During the escape, some money was dropped, at which time the robber allegedly retrieved it and ran into the wood line near the entrance to Audubon Village Apartments.

The subject is described as a black male, 5'6" to 5'10", with an average build. The suspect wore khaki pants, a light-blue button-down dress shirt, a navy blue blazer, a tan Fedora-type hat, and Ralph Lauren Polo shoes.

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $15,000 for information leading to the identification, arrest, and conviction of the subject of this investigation.

Anyone with information that may lead to the identification and/or location of the above subject, may contact their local FBI office or the nearest American Embassy or Consulate. You are also encouraged to contact the FBI Richmond Office at (804) 261-1044.
